Free Elder Law Seminar

(Port Jefferson...) Day Haven Adult Day Services will host an evening seminar on Elder Law at its center in Port Jefferson on Monday, December 5, 2011, 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m., at 400 Sheep Pasture Road. The presentation will be given by Ann Margaret Carrozza, an attorney specializing in elder law, estate planning, estate administration, and special needs planning.

Attendees will learn about the importance of planning ahead including wills and health care proxies. Other areas of discussion will include paying for long term care including Medicaid. Ms. Carrozza will also discuss the recent changes to Medicaid's estate recovery regulations, how to avoid probate, and how to reduce the estate tax bite.

Ann Margaret Carrozza is an executive member of the N. Y. S. Bar Association, Elder Law section, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and is a member of the Long Island Alzheimer's Foundation legal advisory board.

Elizabeth Geary, Director of Day Haven explains, "Each day families come to us facing the possibility of having to make important legal and financial decision for loved ones. We hope this presentation will enable individuals and families to plan for the future and provide options for accessing and paying for care long term care."

The elder law seminar at Day Haven is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For more information about Elder Law Night, Day Haven Adult Day Services, or to RSVP, contact Julie Wexler, (631) 585-2020, ext. 260.
